A. N. Wilson - Wikipedia

This is a brief history, in 62 chapters, of the British national spirit from 1953 to the present day. And by present day, I mean these crucial last few months, when our national spirit has been so sorely tested. Framed around the Queen's television address on 5 April 2020, shortly after Boris Johnson was diagnosed with Covid-19, and the Black Lives Matter protest in Parliament Square on 7 ...
