About Susan - Susan Gloss

The setting for the novel is an artists' colony run out of a lakeside mansion formerly owned by Betsy Barrett, a secondary character from my first novel, VINTAGE. So, although THE CURIOSITIES involves an all-new cast of characters, readers will get a glimpse of Betsy's jet-setting, art-collecting life, as well as some cameos of other ...

Susan Oostdyk has a knack for salvaging old things. When she started her vintage textile business some years ago, it was a way to marry her love of old fabric with frequent trips to flea markets in France. She bought American quilts and textiles, too, and soon expanded into a shop and upholstery business.
